CINCINNATI CONFERENCE.

An Interesting Fifth Day's Session at Urbana.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR.

URBANA, Sept. 8.—This is the fifth day of the M. E. Conference. After a most glorious Sabbath was enjoyed, the day of conference dated and the journal was read and approved. Just now the correspondents sent a prospect of a speedy happy matrimonial alliance.

The preachers will report for Dayton as an inducement to the Conference for holding its next session there, said preachers could not only bring their wives, but those who have none could be supplied.

Rev. Bail reported the Hillsborough District, and said the Ripley District, and said its topography was about that of a giraffe. [Laughter.] Not a Methodist has gone into bankruptcy since 1864. There were one thousand conversions during the year. A warfare was made against rum and tobacco; so much so that the whisky ring could not bring out a candidate for Congress.

Dr. Cramer, Consul to Denmark, was continued in superannuated relation. Dr. Weekly was granted a superannuated relation. Rev. John Wright, of Cincinnati, reported his condition as peaceful and calm. He said: "My father never makes mistakes, and some day He will come and take me home."

Rev. G. W. of Columbus, said he never expected to meet the brethren again, but when he gets home he will report that, like John Brown's soul, the Cincinnati Conference is still marching on. Rev. Hill preached the semi-Centennial sermon at 2 o'clock.

MONDAY AT MEMPHIS.

Nine Deaths and Ten New Cases To-day.

HOWARD'S DENY THE CHARGES AGAINST THEM.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Sept. 8.—11:30 A. M.—Five new cases reported this morning: Frank Gussell, Mrs. Sullivan and Wm. H. Hamner, white; A. D. Mankerlin and Tom Buford, colored. Two deaths: Red Linden, colored; and W. J. Berlin, a prominent real estate agent.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Sept. 8.—Noon.—Six more deaths since our last dispatch: Archie E. Mills, Ella Hanck, Jas. Larsen, Anna M. Campbell and Miss Emma Arnold, white. Three new cases: Patrick J. Martin, Willie Hackett and J. C. Norton, white.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 8.—4 P. M.—New cases since last dispatch: Hannah Rutledge and Frank Zanslan, colored, and one death: Anthony Owens, colored.

A SILENT SABBATH.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE STAR. MEMPHIS, Sept. 8.—9 A. M.—The record of eleven new cases and eight deaths for a clear, pleasant and bright Sunday like yesterday affords no great cause for rejoicing, though the gloom does not seem near so thick as when the weather is unfavorable. Yesterday was the eighth Sunday of our isolation, and was the stillest of them all. Not a single church, either white or colored, opened its doors for worship.

LANGSTAFF AT CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—Dr. A. D. Langstaff has arrived here from St. Louis, and this morning visited the Exchange and presented the claims of the Howard Association of Memphis for financial aid in battling with the yellow fever epidemic. He says it will probably rage for two months yet, and their funds are completely exhausted.

DENIAL FROM THE HOWARDS. CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—President Langstaff to-day published a card denying the charges which have recently been made reflecting upon the Howards, and concluding as follows: "It is very mortifying to members of the Association who are standing between the pestilence and the rest of the world, and who have no reward but a desire to serve humanity to have their acts so falsely maligned and misstated."

WASHINGTON CITY.

EVENTS TO VISIT LORNE.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR. WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Secretary and Mrs. Evans will leave Windsor, Vt., in a few days to become for a short time guests of the Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise, at Ottawa. The visit has no official significance whatever.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE STAR.

THREE NEW COUNTERFEITS. WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Three new counterfeiters have appeared since August 1st. One dollar on the National Eagle Bank, of Boston; and five dollars on the Globe National Bank, of Boston, and the Dedham National Bank of Dedham, Mass. These counterfeiters are prepared by the Shetographic process.

THE TIONDEROGA AT CAPE TOWN.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Commodore Shufeldt, Commanding the Tionderoga, reports to the Navy Department from Cape Town, South Africa, under date of August 10th, as follows: "I have the honor to inform the Department of the arrival here to-day of the Tionderoga direct from St. Helena having left that port on the 19th ult. The sick list is now reduced to forty, and there is only one case at all serious, and in this a change for the better set in this morning. As there is a weekly mail from this place, I will keep the departments fully advised while the ships remains here, and of her future movements."

EAST TENNESSEE GOLD.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR.

MCMINNIEVILLE, TENN., Sept. 8.—Monroe County advises state that the gold miners in the Coker Creek country are very active, and that a large number of men are engaged in surface digging. The existence of gold there in paying quantities is settled beyond a doubt, and capital to work it up will very probably be concentrated there at an early day.

Eighty-four young persons, sentenced to hard labor and deportation to Siberia for political offenses, have left Moscow under an armed guard.

THE HULSE CASE CONTINUED.

His Bail Fixed at $3,000.

The case of C. Hulse, indicted for rape on the child Hattie Hobing, was called before Judge Smith. The prisoner was in Court neatly dressed, his wife sitting beside him.

Major Blackburn, on behalf of the defendant, applied for continuance of the case until the next term.

Prosecutor Drew consented, as the State was not fully prepared to go to trial.

The Court granted a continuance, and the special jury who had been summoned for the case were then discharged.

Major Blackburn then applied to the Court to fix the bail of the prisoner. He said the man was poor and had not a dollar in the world, but that (the bail) was fixed in a reasonable amount his friends would make an effort to obtain bail.

The Court fixed the bail at $3,000.

BAR MEETING.

Adjourned On Account of a Slim Attendance.

An adjourned meeting of the Bar was held in Room No. 2, Common Pleas Court, to consider the adoption of new rules to expedite the business of the Courts.

D. T. Wright was appointed Chairman and G. W. Hardacre Secretary.

not to call the jurors. This seemed a disappointment to a number of professional jurors who were on hand.

SHADOWS OF COMING EVENTS.

The First and Second Ohio have their reunion at Urbana on the 19th.

The Old Volunteer Firemen's Association meet to-night at the Gift's Engine-house.

The St. Peter's Benevolent Society will give a picnic at the Highland House next Friday for the benefit of the orphans.

The Police Department will give their annual symposium at the Bellevue House on Friday, September 19th, from 2 to 12 p. m.

The panorama, Pilgrim's Progress, under charge of the Romil Brothers, will be given tonight at the Third Baptist Church on Pine street, for the benefit of the Sunday-school.

THE STEINBERG ACCIDENT.

The Coroner began his inquest to-day on the body of Henry Steinberg, who was killed Saturday a week ago, by a collision between the Dayton Short Line engine No. 2, and an M. & C. Railroad train. The trains were eight minutes behind time, and a heavy fog was lying over the tracks at the time when the collision occurred.

The testimony taken showed that the collision could have been avoided had there not been a fog. The flagman at the Brighton Station testified that he could have signaled the train if the weather had been clear. As it was he could not see more than 50 feet. The Coroner is still investigating the case.

INCORPORATIONS.

The Bovey Street Car Heating Company filed its articles of incorporation to-day. The amount of the capital stock is $5,000, divided into 100 equal shares. The incorporators are G. B. Kerper, Wm. H. Pierce, S. M. Lemout, George T. Seiter and T. C. Pearce.

The Cincinnati Boat Club also filed articles for incorporation. The incorporators are S. N. Maxwell, Thos. A. Mack, E. R. D. Mohr, John B. Clisset, Chas. L. Eaton and Paul F. Mohr. Capital stock $2,000, divided into $10 shares.

THE SMITH-BROWN MURDER.

The case of Alexander Brown, charged with the murder of Thomas Smith, was called before Judge Wilson this morning. A number of witnesses were examined, whose testimony showed that the killing was done in self defense. Owing to other witnesses who should have been in attendance not being present, the case was continued until next Friday morning, the Judge allowing Brown to go on his own recognizance.

ON 'CHANGE.

The annual election of the officers of the Chamber of Commerce will take place to-morrow from 12 to 3 o'clock. The tellers will be Chas. Grace, N. M. Johnson and Luther Parker.

The Committee to whom was referred the communication from the New York Chamber of Commerce, asking that the central system be adopted in the sale of all kinds of grain by the Cincinnati Chamber, reported to-day in favor of adopting the system. The report will be considered next Saturday.

LINWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT.

There has been some trouble of late in the Linwood School District as to the appointment of a superintendent for that District. The matter, in order to come to a settlement, was finally referred to the County Commissioners with power to act.

The vote of the Trustees had stood 3 to 3, and last Saturday, however, they came to an agreement by electing Mr. Bodine as superintendent. It appears that J. P. Langdon had no fair show, and that the matter will be taken into the Courts.

HOSPITAL REPORT.

The following is the weekly report of the Cincinnati Hospital officials:

Admitted..... 61
Discharged..... 69
Remaining..... 200
Born..... 5
Died..... 4

PROBATE COURT.

The will of Stephen West was admitted to probate. S. West, Jr., and Warren Steele were appointed executors. Estate, $40,000. M. Becker was appointed administrator of Magdalena Bernet. Personality, $700.

A DESERTER.

Geo. Winner, a soldier, who formerly lived at No. 126 Mohawk street, was locked up this morning as a deserter from the army. His station is at Columbus.

A complete statement of the liabilities of the bank of Bussing & Co. will be furnished by Wednesday or Thursday, and on or near the 1st of October it is expected that twenty per cent. of the indebtedness will be paid. The amount of money belonging to the Archbishop's fund which was in the bank is $5,500. Of this the bank expects to pay seventy-five per cent, and Mr. Scanlan has promised to make good the balance.

Mr. Anzi McGill, who was appointed some days ago by the Commissioners as Road Viewer on the road petitioned for by John Gaiser and others, which road is sought to be located in Colerain Township, has refused to serve. His place will be filled Wednesday by the County Commissioners.

A black four-year-old filly belonging to Mr. Chas. Davis got from its pasture on Kemper Lane yesterday and in crossing the sidewalk, fell and knocked down his left hip, causing its ruin. This is the second horse Mr. Davis has lost within sixty days, each valued at five hundred dollars.

Thomas Marsland and Steve Taylor, each about twenty-one years old, were arrested and locked up on suspicion of picking pockets. Meade and Nordhoff made the arrests and locked the fellows up in the Third District Station.

John Crawford, who claims to be a dentist, but who is said to be a bad crowd, was arrested at his home, No. 524 Main street, and taken to Bremen street Station-house this morning for abusing his family.

The air ship of Professor Bidwell, who was giving entertainments at the Look-out House some time ago, and which was attached for debt by Squire Block, was sold to-day to Mr. Stryker.

Nick Roberts' Humpty-Dumpty band, and an excellent band it is, favored the Swan Office with a choice serenade this afternoon.

Police Commissioner Phillips, of Dayton, O., is in the city.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Full Returns from the San Francisco Election.

FULL RETURNS FROM SAN FRANCISCO. National Associated Press to the Star.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—The complete count of the city gives the following result: The Workingmen elect the Mayor, Sheriff, Auditor, Treasurer, Tax Collector, Public Administrator, Surveyor, District Attorney, City and County Attorney, Police Judge, one Supervisor, five members of the Board of Education, and Railroad Commissioner for the City District.

The Republicans elect the Assessor, Recorder, Coroner, County Clerk, Superintendent of Schools, Superintendent of Streets, eleven Supervisors, seven members of the Board of Education and a member of the State Board of Equalization, and re-elect their Congressman.

The Superior Judges elected are mostly on the tickets of all parties. Some of the officers were elected by majorities so small that it is possible the official count may result in some changes.
